

Please keep the FCC strong enough to prevent the encroachment of our airways by monopolistic communications companies. We are only as strong as the diversity of voices that get through to the public to process.